

113TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 4377

To place conditions on assistance to the Government of Burma.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 2, 2014

Mr. CHABOT (for himself and Mr. CROWLEY) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

To place conditions on assistance to the Government of Burma.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Burma Human Rights
5 and Democracy Act of 2014”.

6 SEC. 2. ASSISTANCE FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF BURMA.

7 (a) LIMITATION.—

8 (1) IN GENERAL.—No funds authorized to be
9 appropriated or otherwise made available for fiscal 10 year 2014 or 2015 may be made available for secu-
11 rity assistance described in paragraph (2) to the

1 Government of Burma unless the Secretary of State
2 certifies to the appropriate congressional committees
3 that—

4 (A) the Government of Burma has taken
5 concrete steps toward—

6 (i) establishing civilian oversight of 7 the armed forces;

8 (ii) addressing human rights abuses
9 by the Burmese military, including publicly
10 acknowledging that human rights abuses
11 have been and continue to be committed by 12 the Burmese military, and committing to a
13 zero tolerance policy against such human 14 rights abuses; and

15 (iii) terminating military relations
16 with North Korea;

17 (B) the Government of Burma has taken
18 concrete steps to establish a fair, transparent
19 and inclusive process to amend the Constitution
20 of Burma, including the full participation of the 21 political opposition and all ethnic minority
22 groups, and the constitutional reform process
23 will provide the basis for free, fair, and com-
24 petitive elections in Burma;

(C) the Government of Burma has amended its constitution and laws to ensure civilian control of the military and implemented reforms to increase the transparency and accountability of the military's budget and operations, and the Burmese military has taken substantial and meaningful steps to divest itself from ownership of commercial businesses;

(D) the Government of Burma is showing meaningful and well-documented efforts to promote peace agreements or political reconciliation and equal and fair treatment of all ethnic groups in conflict areas or areas of unrest, and to actively address the resettlement and humanitarian situation of displaced persons; and

(E) the Burmese military is—

(i) improving its human rights record, as measured by consistent decreases in reports of forced labor, indefinite detention, torture, or cruel, inhumane, and degrading treatment of detainees, and use in armed conflict of indiscriminate or disproportionate methods and means of attack;

(ii) demonstrating a genuine interest in reform by ceasing attacks against ethnic minority groups in both ceasefire and non-ceasefire areas;

(iii) taking steps to withdraw forces from conflict zones, including by halting the use of soldiers in economic development projects;

(iv) adhering to the conditions of ceasefire agreements; and

(v) signing and implementing a code of conduct.

(2) DEFINITION.—In this subsection, the term “security assistance” means—

(A) assistance under chapter 2 (military assistance), chapter 5 (military education and training), or chapter 6 (peacekeeping operations) of part II of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961;

(B) assistance under chapter 8 of part II of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, chapter 9 of part II of such Act, section 504 of the FREEDOM Support Act, section 23 of the Arms Export Control Act, or the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 for demining programs and activities to be carried out by or in con-

1 junction with military units or personnel of a
2 foreign country;

3 (C) sales of defense articles or defense
4 services, extensions of credits (including participa-
5 tions in credits), and guaranties of loans
6 under the Arms Export Control Act; or

7 (D) any license in effect with respect to 8 the export of defense articles or defense services
9 to or for the armed forces, police, intelligence,
10 or other internal security forces of Burma
11 under section 38 of the Arms Export Control
12 Act.

13 (3) APPLICABILITY TO FY 2014 FUNDS.—The
14 limitation on the availability of funds under this sub-
15 section for fiscal year 2014 shall apply with respect
16 to funds that are unobligated as of the date of the 17 enactment of this Act.

18 (4) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—Nothing in this Act
19 should be construed either to prevent participation
20 by Burmese authorities in training on civil-military 21 relations and human rights, as carried out by the 22 Defense Institute of International Legal Studies, or 23 to prevent United States disaster assistance in
24 Burma.

25 (b) REPORT.—

1 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 120 days
2 after the date of the enactment of this Act, and an-
3 nually thereafter, the Secretary of State shall submit
4 to the appropriate congressional committees a report
5 on the strategy for, and plans and status of, engage-
6 ment between the United States and the Burmese
7 military.

8 (2) ELEMENTS.—The report required under
9 paragraph (1) shall include the following elements:

10 (A) A description and assessment of the 11 Government of Burma's strategy for security
12 sector reform, an identification and comprehen-
13 sive analysis of those reform elements that the 14 United States Government should support, and 15 a multi-year cost estimate for providing such 16 support.

17 (B) The United States strategy for the re-
18 lationship between the United States and the 19 Burmese military, including a description of 20 how and why such engagements are necessary
21 for United States national security.

22 (C) An assessment of the human rights
23 record of the Burmese military over the past
24 decade, including—

(i) an account of violations of human rights and laws of armed conflict by the Burmese military and all paramilitary and security forces under its command, including against ethnic minority groups;

(ii) a description of efforts by the Burmese military to implement human rights reforms; and

(iii) a description of progress in the relationship between the United States and the Burmese military and such reforms.

(D) An assessment of any substantial and meaningful steps taken by the Burmese military to implement reforms to increase transparency and accountability of the military's budget and operations and to divest itself from ownership of commercial business.

(E) A list of ongoing activities conducted by the United States Government and other international donors with the Burmese military, including a description of each such activity.

(F) An update on activities that were listed in previous reporting.

(G) A list of activities that are planned to occur over the upcoming year, with a written description of each.

(H) A description of progress on the peaceful settlement of armed conflicts between the Government of Burma and ethnic minority groups, including the steps taken by the Burmese military to demonstrate respect for ceasefires, laws of armed conflict, and human rights provisions prohibiting rape, torture, forced labor, trafficking, and the use of child soldiers.

(I) A description of the concrete steps the Government of Burma has taken—

(i) to establish a fair, transparent, and inclusive process to amend the Constitution of Burma;

(ii) to promote peace agreements or political reconciliation and equal and fair treatment of all ethnic groups in conflict areas or areas of unrest; and

(iii) to actively address the resettlement and humanitarian situation of displaced persons.

(J) An assessment of the status of the Burmese military's cooperation with civilian authorities to investigate and resolve cases of human rights violations.

8 (c) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES DE-
9 FINED.—In this section, the term “appropriate congres-
10 sional committees” means the Committee on Foreign Af-
11 fairs of the House of Representatives and the Committee
12 on Foreign Relations of the Senate.
